

Yerba Buena I

5th ANNUAL 30th EMPEROR NORTON DAY

SATURDAY JANUARY 11, 2014 C.Y. 6019

Yerba Buena Number One A&HO E Clampus Vitus® Sounds the Hewgag

Emperor Norton Day is coming up! the usual spot - Ole Molloy's - Mission Road, Colma. Graveside gathering set for 10:31 to celebrate ECV's Legendary Brother. Then converge on Molloy's to lick yer wounds from the Holiday, and kick off ClampYear 6019!

Emperor Norton I grave site @ 1031 Fer those of you who need a reminder! There'll be a quiz later! Clamp Revelry to follow Reverence and Speechifyin at the grave site. Libations to follow with Speechification at 'Ole Molloy's' on Mission Street, Colma. The Rafflemeisters have obtained some unique items for your viewing and winning pleasure. They will gladly accept any donations of books, oddities, to aid their sales efforts on January 11.

The Emperor is dispatching the Vituscan Crab Fleet TO BRING IN A LOAD OF THESE DELECTABLE sea BUGS TO SATISFY THE HUNGER PAINS OF THE MASS OF BRETHERN IN ATTENDANCE. The Savory bugs will be accompanied by salad, bread, and wine. Be sure note on your check the alternate offering of a Giant Floyd sub sandwich TO GDR Jerry "shrimp" crow for those who choose not to eat our delicious seabug friends.

Like last year and every year, Norton Day is a pre-reg event & all proceeds benefit the Old Timers Museum in Murphys.

Grub Stubs will NOT be sent out.

All the above for the measly rub of $45.00
